Robert S. Fuller, 94, of Tenafly, NJ, passed away on December 1, 2019 in his home at Cardinal Village in Sewell, NJ. He was born on May 30, 1925 in Englewood, NJ, to Floyd Merrick Fuller and Anna Louise Fuller (nee Sanford) of Tenafly, NJ. He lived in Tenafly for 92 years.

He was predeceased by his loving wife Ruth Elizabeth Fuller (nee Steger) and his long term companion, Lydia Reitz. Father of Susan Fuller Mann (J. Michael) of Stratford, NJ, Nancy Ruth Fuller Wainwright (Alfred, Jr.) of Sewell, NJ, and Robert John Fuller (Rachel) of Cedarburg, WI. Grandfather of 7 and great-grandfather of 8. Bob was known to all as a volunteer fireman and an officer at Tenafly Fire Department, and later in life, as a Fire and Safety Inspector for the Borough of Tenafly. He was enlisted in the 101st Airborne Division of the US Army in Europe during WWII, and later became a photo engraver for Alco Gravure in Hoboken, NJ, for over 30 years. A lifelong member of the Presbyterian Church at Tenafly, he served several terms as a Deacon.

His passion for American history led him to trace his roots to passengers on the Mayflower, and to join the Society of the Cincinnati, for ancestors of those who fought in the Revolutionary War. A lover of the outdoors, he enjoyed hiking and birdwatching, which are also embraced by his extended family. He often broke out in songs, including hymns and popular tunes from the 1940's.
