

Ronald Jacob Couri

March 1, 2023

Ronald Jacob Couri of Fort Lee, formerly of Tenafly, New Jersey passed away unexpectedly at his residence on March 1, 2023, at the age of 70. His family, friends, and employees are all deeply saddened by his passing.

He is survived by his sons Evan Brett Couri and Ronald George Couri, his daughter Cristina Couri Salit, her husband Eric Stephen Salit, and his grandchildren Elle Harper Salit and Star Grey Salit.

Born on October 8, 1952, in Brooklyn, New York, to George Jacob Couri and Eleanor Veronica Shehab, Ron grew up in Dyker Heights with his three brothers George, Robert, and Steven. He attended Poly Prep Country Day School, class of 1970, where he lettered in wrestling and lacrosse. He continued his education at Villanova and Temple Universities earning a business degree in 1974.

Ron was the President and Chief Executive Officer of Couristan, Inc., a 97-year-old family-owned, business that imports and manufactures fine, quality area rugs, residential carpeting, and custom contract carpeting. Ron served at the company for over 50 years. He was recognized by his peers and employees as an innovative leader in the area rug and home furnishings industries, whose passion and creative vision helped to secure his family's business legacy.

Publicly acknowledged for the work he had done in support of "No Child Labor" laws, Ron structured strict "No Child Labor" policies within Couristan by implementing internal and third-party inspections of each facility where handmade area rugs were made. After confirmation, each area rug was verified with a "No Child Labor" tag on its backing assuring the company's policies were being followed.

He diligently explored new business opportunities and ventured into initiatives that would forever change the landscape of how area rugs were manufactured, marketed, designed, and colored. Through Ron's vast knowledge of the floor-covering industry, he was able to structure licensing agreements with renowned and highly marketed brands under the Couristan umbrella including Vanderbilt, Forbes, Disney, CARE, and Marvel.

Perhaps, his greatest business accomplishment, and one that continues to grow within the industry, was his vision of manufacturing and marketing indoor/outdoor area rugs. In 2001 under his guidance, Couristan launched its first outdoor area rug collection with its award-winning Recife Collection. At the time many of his peers in the industry looked at the outdoor segment as a quick trend that would dissolve within 5 years. However, Ron's perseverance and ingenuity would prevail; the outdoor area rug segment continues to grow exponentially with Couristan at its helm.

Anyone who knew Ron knew he had a tremendous passion for the arts which he instilled in his children and grandchildren. The soundtrack of his life, and his favorite band, was proudly the Grateful Dead. Ron was a former board member of the Bergen Performing Arts Center in Englewood, New Jersey, and was named an Honoree in 2015 for his long-time generous support and contributions. He appreciated how the Center offered something to everyone in the community and how positively the arts education program impacted the lives of its students.

A world traveler Ron particularly loved to vacation in Spain and Colorado. He also enjoyed the simple comforts of his mother's home in the Poconos and kept his heart in San Francisco. He taught his children to be avid skiers, instilled in them a love of their Lebanese heritage with its food, and brought them back every year to his beloved Dyker Heights to see the Christmas lights on display. He was a family man through and through. He loved his children and grandchildren so intensely and wanted to show them the world. Ron will be missed more than words can express in a world that needs more people like him.

“ I just heard about this, and wish to give my condolences and prayers to Ron's family. We were literally 1 day apart in age and new each other since 1975 when I was the carpet & rug buyer at Gimbels in Milwaukee. Even though we haven't spoken for some time since I retired, I feel a real sense of loss. RIP my friend.

We send our condolences to the family, and send our prays and strength for the coming time and the future for this loss.

Ron, what I always will remember is the smile, humor but also sometimes the fight we had for service or rates.

But always with respect for each other and whatever was the fight after 5pm we walked thru the same door home.

That's what I will always remember about Ron a gentlemen.

“ To the Couri Family,
On behalf of Mike and Andrew Seaman of Manchester Carpet in Houston, Texas, we are sending our condolences and praying for peace during this time for all. In reading through Mr. Couri's obit, I found this verse from Ecclesiastes that is pertinent to all of his accomplishments with family, friends, business and community. "A good name is better than a good ointment, And the day of one's death is better than the day of one's birth." (Ecclesiastes 7:1). May the Lord wrap his loving arms around each of you and know that God has received HIS servant in heaven for all he has done to help others in their journey of life.
