“ To The Dahill Family.

I am so sorry for the loss of Rory. Having spent some time with your family these past two days I can certainly see why Rory was so compassionate and genuine; he learned that from all of you. He took the way he was raised and incorporated that into his being a dedicated member of the New York City Police Department. While I wish I could remember now what he said to me when I interviewed him for a position in the Times Square Unit, rest assured, he did well and I saw something within him. (I interviewed a lot of cops for the open positions and turned down a substantial number of prospective candidates.)

May Rory be at peace and may the Dahill Family find peace.

It was my pleasure to have known Rory.

Sincerely,

*Rob
Eileen and I are touched by your words. We truly appreciate them. Our pursuit of peace has been made manageable due to the support of the NYPD. Your leadership is a major part of that. Thanks again.*

“ Dear Kevin, Eileen, and family. My deepest sympathies on the loss of your beloved Rory. I first met him when he was a teenager and was visiting Kevin in his office. I was struck by his sweetness and how much he resembled Eileen and still does. He is and always will be your angel. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Janine Logan.

I read about Officer Dahill's passing in the Record. I'm so very sorry for your loss. I lost my brother Sgt. John Schetting nearly 13 years ago. You have my deepest sympathy and my sincere wish for peace and healing as you work through this extraordinarily sad loss.

I sincerely pray that Peace will embrace you each as you work through this sad event and that when your sorrows yield to understanding you will feel his joy in your lives again. Rory surely is with Jesus and his angels. I have no doubt that God has a mission for Rory to be accomplished yet. Soul is eternal. May the Lord place his hand on your hearts.

“ I'll never forget the good times Rory and I had together. He was a tremendous human being with a gentle soul and a great work partner who could always make you laugh and smile no matter what the situation was. He always had my back out on the busy city streets and in life, whenever I needed an ear to listen. For that, I'm thankful for him and I'll always carry those fond memories with me for as long as I live. My sincere condolences to the Dahill family. Rory, may you rest in peace.
