“ Aunt Rosemarie was my mothers very best friend and Godmother to my brother, Arthur. When I was a young child I could not wait for her visits and even though her and Uncle Joe had very busy and full lives with friends and family, she made time for each person. She had the most genuine and kind heart. She always knew what to do in a crisis and helped us through many which gave us such a sense of security and comfort to know both her and Uncle Joe were there for us. She was ALWAYS there for us no matter what the circumstance and certainly no matter how inconvenient. She was a positive person in my life guiding me through my years of adolescence. I am so grateful and blessed that she was my Aunt and in our lives. Her smile was made of sunshine and her heart made of gold....

May God bless you Aunt Rosemarie, and keep you safe in heaven until we are reunited in His name.

I Love you dearly ❤️ MaryAnne DeLuca
