“ i was honored to have been Phil's doctor for over 20 years. It was always a delight to see them, and watched how they lovingly interacted. As i told her many times, it was her loving care that kept him going.

“ I met Sheila when my family and I moved into Towne Centre 3 years ago. I had noticed this lovely woman with beautiful red hair, welcoming smile and wearing a long green coat and I just remember thinking back to myself, “Wow, stunning!” She was a beautiful woman with a beautiful soul. I will miss our little hallway conversations but I was blessed to have met her. Rest In Peace my friend. 🙏❤️

“ Sheila was one of my all time great literary buddies. Whenever I’m enjoying a terrific read, I always think of her. Tell Sheila about this one. I don’t think I’ll be able to stop that reoccurring, pleasantly obtrusive thought. The last one we shared was A GENTLEMAN IN MOSCOW by Amor Towles. I will miss her for that. Liz Wagner Maio

“ Sheila always carried herself in a most elegant manner. She was so attractive, always well dressed and took such pride in her appearance. She was an excellent histess. We met at the Summer House that went on literally forever in Hampton Bays. I always enjoyed our conversations. She was the real deal. I will miss her.

Sheila I can't believe you're gone. You had such vibrancy life and deep interest. Philip was your focus and now you both have left us. May you rest in peace. Love Nancy

“ *We met Sheila when we moved to The Town Centre in Englewood about 6 years ago. And we are so glad we did! She was a caring, thoughtful friend and a wonderful storyteller. We happily spent many Sunday afternoons visiting with her. She was valiant in the face of her illness and we will miss her so much, but we are glad she is suffering no longer. Like Sue and Richard, we moved in about the same time and I marveled at her weekly excursions into the city, usually for something off Broadway, and her articulate, animated conversation about what she saw. She joined us for Scrabble, Book Club (when she could), and contributed the most artistic, delicious desserts to our occasional Pot Luck dinner gatherings.

*What a role model! Sheila made every effort to join any gatherings for as long as she could . . . We will miss her warmth, determination, literary contributions, and incredible courage and positive . . .

“ Sheila was one of my first really good friends in Towne Centre. I always enjoyed being with her. She would come to my ap't. for coffee many afternoons. She also went with me to the ballet- always a lovely day together. I am so sad that she is no longer with us yet glad that her suffering has ended.

I met Sheila at my very first book club meeting in the library at Towne Center. She was so impressive in her ability to bring the particular selection to life. I learned that she had been a high school English teacher. Lucky students! From that time on, I enjoyed her company at numerous get togethers. Alfred joins me in sending our condolences.

There was no question that Sheila was a teacher. During our book club meetings, she was so wonderfully insightful. Her warmth was felt by all, including by my cavapoo, Bentley, whom she welcomed with open arms into her apartment. Sheila was a model to us all, elegant and lovely. She will be sorely missed.

Dear sheila,
Although we no longer have your physical presence, we will remember your brilliance and your bravery, your inner and outer beauty. Those of us whose lives you touched so deeply were enriched and will miss you. We will always treasure your essence and your grace.
Sleep well, dear Sheila

In the early 90s Sheila, Phil, my husband Gene & I met at a B&B in Key West. Coincidence or destiny? We discovered we had apartments a couple of blocks apart in NYC & homes on LI about 10 minutes apart! We became instant friends.

We had so many good times together. I will miss her smile & wonderful attitude about life. We were able to meet for lunch in August. When we said goodbye we both knew it was probably the last time we would see each other. She left us way too soon.

The world is a lesser place without Sheila.
