

Stanley Sherman

November 26, 2020

On Thursday, November 26, Stan Sherman passed away at the age of 73. He was a devoted brother, husband, father, grandfather, and uncle. Stan was born on March 11, 1947 and grew up in the Bronx, NY. He worked for over 35 years on Wall Street as a Eurodollar Broker. After retiring from Wall Street, Stan enjoyed working as an extra on several movies and TV shows. Stan lived for over 40 years in Tenafly, NJ. He was a die-hard New York Yankees fan, avid golfer, and connoisseur of useless trivia and facts. Stan, or “Uncle Tan” to his nieces and nephews, had a wicked sense of humor, a big heart, and a wonderful smile that came out anytime he discussed his family. He was preceded in death by his oldest son, Mark. Stan is survived by his wife Denise, his youngest son Peter and daughter-in-law Paula, his daughter-in-law Wendy, his sister April, and his grandchildren Michael, Marissa, and Madeline. A virtual memorial service will be held on Sunday, December 6th. In lieu of flowers, donations in Stan's name may be made to the National Brain Tumor Society (braintumor.org) are greatly appreciated by his family.

“ I met Stan and his beautiful wife Denise in the cold early hours of the morning after some tried to break into their car which was parked in the driveway. Fortunately (and I won't say who) got a good look at the perpetrator. As a result of their cooperation an individual was charged with a string of burglaries. I would always see Stan and Denise around town and soon after a friendship was created. 911 affected Stan immensely and he soon retired from his job in NYC. I would often see him in the bakery early in the morning (I mean early, as soon as it opened) and would go in and have coffee and talk. We always had so much to talk about, especially music. Stan was such a fun guy, and a loving husband and a father. He was so proud of his family and Grandchildren. We continued to see one another through the years and he always greeted me with a hug. After I retired we didn't see one another as much, but I never forgot him and often think of him fondly. My condolences to his wife and children.

“ Denise, when I heard of Stan's passing my immediate thought went to seeing the two of you dance so beautifully and elegantly at Kim and Mike's wedding. I don't know if you recall, but we sat at the same table. What a gentleman he was. In those brief hours we spent together I could see what a special couple you are.

“ Firstly, condolences to Denise, Peter, April and Stan's beloved grandchildren. He was a very special man. Stan was my oldest and in many ways my closest friend. As Stan used to say, our mothers wheeled our baby carriages together down the Grand Concourse when we were infants. Our friendship dates back 74 years! We roamed the streets of the 1950s Bronx and played every city game you could imagine. We also came of age together. We had a blast! We remained close friends all the way through high school. We followed our own paths for a while, then reconnected about 20 years ago (this is where I would rely on his razor sharp memory for an exact date). We would have long, fun chats at least once a week or more until it was difficult for him. He was my pal and I will miss him dearly.

“ I'm greatly saddened to learn of the passing of my old friend Stan. Please accept my sincere condolences. We worked together on Wall Street for two different firms. At one time, we sat across from each other on the trading desk. We shared many laughs and social occasions during those years. The last time we met was during a Money Market reunion in 2007. However, a friend or loved one that departs from this life never truly leaves. They live on in our hearts and through our memories.

“ So sad to hear of Stan's passing. We have known each other for over 50 years. We lost touch for a long time but thanks to FB we were able to re-connect. When we were 20 something, he tried to teach me how to play guitar...that didn't work. I tried to beat him at pool...that didn't work but we always had a great time. We had so much fun together for many years and I will miss him very much.

“ When I think of Stan, I think of his resilience and of his kindness. Stan always brought a smile and shared stories with me while I cut his hair-he supported my business and me for many years as a client and a friend. He delighted in sharing about his family and his faithful companion, Charlie! I feel blessed to have known Stan and he taught me that no matter the odds...there is so much to fight for and to live each day with love and kindness... Stan I'll be deeply missed. Sending love to his family and friends.

“ I will miss his daily posting of Stan's Useless Information. Got a laugh and learned something I didn't know after each read. His sense of humor was razor sharp. After seeing a picture from my wedding in 1973 he told me that The Temptations wanted their suits back. Still get a chuckle each time I recall that back and forth. You'll be missed!
