“ Timothy Turner lit a candle in memory of Vasilios Livanos

“ I met "Bill" through my friendship with his son Anthony. What I'll always remember about Bill was his youthful spirit, his love of music, his dedication to his faith, and his dedication to his kids.

I remember sharing many laughs with him as he enjoyed comedy and laughing. He loved to participate in our goofy young men activities and be one of the "dudes".

He supported his sons' dreams and ambitions now matter how unrealistic they may have seemed.

Thank you Bill for your youthful spirit, your faith, and your love.

“ Rest in Peace Uncle Bill. We hope that you find eternal love and peace in heaven, alongside your wife, father, and mother... our sweet Yia Yia. We feel so blessed to have had you as a part of our lives, and will cherish your memory as the eldest Livanos brother.

All our love, Chelsea & Matt

“ Reuniting with his beloved wife, Vasilios “Bill” Livanos, wearing a robe of white, joined our Father in his Heavenly home. We are all blessed to have been part of his life here on Earth and to have the assurance that we will one day meet them again beyond the gates of Heaven.

Bill was loved and treasured by those who were fortunate enough to have him touch their lives in many ways: son, husband, father, brother, confidant, and friend. He impressed us all with his charm, his humor, his smile, his intelligence, his religious study, and his love of our creator.

My memories are filled with spirited dialogues over the nuances of Christianity, his kindness of heart, the grace of his humility, and the generosity of a devout spirit. I knew him in his later years, after both his sons Anthony and Alex, whom he dearly loved, were full grown. They both are men, who are a tribute to their loving parents, filled with traits of character: tenacity, honor, humility, and love of life.

A valuable lesson that Bill modeled for his family and friends was his contentment and positivity in whatever the situation. Never had envy of others nor want for what he did not have. He could appreciate the simple pleasures in life and find joy in most situations that put him in a class of his own.

Many admired him because of his gentle manners and the way he delicately spoke about others. Bill was never one to raise his voice or speak negatively about anybody. You never heard him gossip or belittle anyone. He was most humbly grateful for his sons, for his health, for just about anything, and he meant it.

I met him before his mental capabilities began to deteriorate. He still exuded a zest for life, a life of study and stories to share. Bill always welcomed me and treated me like part of the family. He warmed my heart and made me feel extra special. I am appreciative for the moments we spent together, and the laughter we shared, and look forward to the day we meet again.

May God Bless this gentle man and his gentle soul. He will be missed.

“ I am so sorry for your loss, I'm here for you all; sending love and prayers. I got the chance to meet Anthony's dad a couple times; and he seemed like a very smart, interesting person and a lover of life; I have a couple cherishable memories also. You will be missed; but we all know you are in a better place now! Rest In Peace Legend <3

“ There are never copious words that can satisfactorily express the life and love my brother and I have for our dad. He was someone who often stood his ground, especially in times when things were difficult, and displayed immense willpower and perseverance in the midst of darkest of times. In brighter days, he often displayed a playful and goofy personality. His fortitude knew no bounds, and he grew spiritually attuned over the years with the Lord. I will forever admire him for these qualities, and words cannot express how much he is loved and missed.

I only chanced to meet this man once but that was enough to know he was a complicated and interesting human being. From the first moment I met him he seemed like a quiet, deliberate soul who took things seriously. My mother would probably say about this kind of person that "still waters run deep".

Unfortunately I did not get to know him as well or for very long but I know he left an inedible impact on those he left behind. Despite only meeting once, to him I want to say, the last of my dear friend's parents, rest well, may you find solace in the comfort of your loved ones who will greet you and God's presence in Heaven.

These photos are so special. I'll treasure all of my memories with Uncle Bill whether it was in Florida or in New Jersey. While he is no longer with us, I know he is in a better place and united with Aunt Liz and Yia Yia. I wish I could be there to support my family but know that I am sending all my love and prayers.

Areti Livanos - February 01, 2021 at 02:44 PM

Thank you for uploading these, Angelica. I remember when you both were so little still and we went to the theme parks several times as you both grew older. We had such a great time, and I wish we were closer to you both so that we can spend more time as a family.

Thank you, Areti for your love and warm comments.

“ Uncle Bill, we hope you have found peace in your final resting place and we are so fortunate to have been able to see you at our wedding in 2019! It was so nice to have everyone together and to be able to spend time as a family at such a special event and I'll treasure that memory ❤️ Love, Alexa and MJ

“ It is with a heavy heart that I read the obituary of Billy Livanos. I have many childhood memories of him & the Livanos family. We often visited the family in Brooklyn & played together. Billy's , George, & my grandmother Eugenia were siblings. My grandmother was the eldest of the many Frangos ' siblings. My heartfelt sympathies to his brothers and his children. Rest In Peace Billy 🙏🙏
