

Vito DeSantis

November 28, 2023

Vito DeSantis, 84, of Closter, passed away on November 28, 2023.

Born in Italy, Vito came to the United States 61 years ago. He was the man of his house at an early age, following the early passing of his father. He was a hard worker, paving the way for his wife, kids, and grandchildren, to have the most successful life possible. Vito enjoyed spending time with family, gardening, painting, drawing, going on countless trips, talking about Giovinazzo, and reminiscing about stories to his grandchildren.

Vito is lovingly survived by his wife Maria, son Gaetano DeSantis and his wife Melody. Grandchildren; Vito Anthony DeSantis, Valentina Sophia DeSantis, Gaetano Thomas DeSantis , Anthony Vito Belfert, Mina Maria Belfert and Gaetano Bruno Belfert. Vito is lovingly embraced by his daughter Giulia DeSantis-Belfert at the gates of heaven and is also survived by her husband Bill.

“ Sad news! A great guy, tough but gentle, respectful and responsible, we very much liked him and rely on his help! His dedication to his work, cooperation with us all and business owners was outstanding!

We will all miss him. God rest him in peace!

Tomi Trutescu

Very sad indeed! Vito was an exceptional person, both tough and gentle at the same time, always dedicated and cooperative. He will be missed. May he rest in peace!

Ruben Schachman

Vito was a gentleman, funny and kind and his memory will forever remain in our hearts. We will miss him, and we will miss his stories too! May he R.I.P.

Eduard Dobre

Vito was one of a kind, he always had a comment about anything that will make you laugh.
